LABOR AND STRIKES

An Important Report Made by a Congressional Committee.

WORKMEN WIN A VICTORY.

Employment of Armed Bodies on Occasion of Strikes and Threatened Labor Troubles Not Approved of by the Select Committee of the United States Senate That Investigated the Homestead Riots. The Rights of Employes and Workmen are Equal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Mr. Gallinger, from the select committee appointed by the senate to investigate and report to the senate the facts in relation to the employment for private purposes of armed bodies of men, or detectives, in connection with differences between workmen and employers, submitted the report of the committee yesterday. The investigation of these subjects allowed the inquiry to take a wide scope. The side of the detectives was published by fourteen different witnesses, prominent among them being the Pinkertons themselves.

The parts played by the Pinkerton agencies in the late Homestead strike was detailed by Mr. H. C. Frick, of the Carnegie company and Mr. Robert A. Pinkerton, of the detective agency and eight other witnesses. Directly bearing upon the questions of labor and labor strikes appears the testimony of seventeen witnesses, and regarding the power of the courts to interfere to prevent labor strikes is set out in the testimony of four witnesses. Fifteen additional witnesses bear testimony on the subject of arbitration and other parts of the inquiry pursued by the committee.

The committee found that even the proprietors of the detective agencies admitted that the presence of the so-called Pinkertons at a strike served to unduly inflame the passions of the strikers and the temperance of detectives in the guise of mechanics, impressed the committee with the belief that it is an utterly vicious system, responsible for much of the ill feeling and bad blood displayed by the workmen classes. The committee expressed the opinion that if firms and corporations would discontinue the employment of the armed men on occasions of threatened or existing strikes, their interests would be better subserved.

"It strikes your committee," the report continues, "that if Mr. Frick had acted upon the views laid down by Mr. Andrew Carnegie in his article, 'The Results of the Labor Trouble,' in the Forum magazine, which in a recent letter to the chairman of this committee Mr. Carnegie reaffirmed and had further extended negotiations with his workmen the Homestead strike might have been averted."

The committee declares that the employment of a private armed guard at Homestead was unnecessary. There was no evidence, they say, to show the slightest damage was done or attempted to be done property by the strikers. At the same time there seems to be no excuse for the scenes of the disorder and terrorism, for the strikers were themselves responsible; laboring men should learn the lesson that they can not better their condition by violating the law or resisting lawful authority.

The committee reached these conclusions:

First—Rights of employes and workmen are equal.

Second—Employers have an undoubted right, provided they fulfill their agreements, to employ and dismiss men at pleasure.

Third—Workmen can legally organize for mutual protection and improvement.

Fourth—When dissatisfied with wages or hours they should attempt to arbitrate.

Fifth—Failing in this they have a right to discontinue work either singly or in a body.

Sixth—Having discontinued, they have no right, legal or moral, by force or intimidation to keep others from taking their places, or to attempt to occupy, injure, or destroy the property of their employers.

Seventh—In all controversies, arbitration having failed, reliance should be placed upon the power and adequacy of law.

Eighth—Whether assumedly legal or not, the employment of armed bodies of men for private purposes, either by employers or employes, should not be resorted to, and such use is an assumption of the states' authority by private citizens.

Ninth—States have undoubtedly a right to legislate against the employment of armed bodies of men for private purposes, but the power of congress to so legislate is not clear, although it would seem that congress ought not to be powerless to prevent the movement of such bodies from one state to another.

In conclusion the committee says that its investigations have led it to conclude that the fault is not wholly on one side; that middle ground seems to be in the direction of arbitration, without making any recommendations, but pleading for arbitration, the committee closes its report by saying: "To that end we bespeak the co-operation of all patriotic citizens, and your committee will welcome any legislation which will tend to secure to the laboring man his every right without depriving the employer of his, for both are guaranteed by the constitution and the laws of the land."

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Feb. 11.—The home for the aged and infirm here has received a gift of $5,000 from Elisha Smith, of Menasha, Wis.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Two Important Events in the Financial World.

New York, Feb. 11.—R. G. Dunn & Company's weekly review of trade says: Two important events, the defeat of anti-silver legislation in the senate and house, and the concerted deposit of gold by New York banks in the treasury in exchange for legal tenders have directly opposing but powerful influence upon the markets, and it is yet too early to determine what the net result may be. The confidence manifested by the banks strengthened markets on Thursday, but the decisive defeat of silver legislation in the house caused renewed discouragement and apprehension.

It is not by all realized that gold reserve of $100,000,000 not to be used except for protection of note circulation, was expressly intended to be used for that purpose, and as far as it is so used the notes go into the treasury in place of the gold taken out. The banks, by placing the gold they do not need in the treasury instead of notes, to the extent of $5,800,000 this week, reasonably hope that their confidence may lessen the disposition to withdraw gold. In other respects the state of trade is satisfactory, except that severe storms and cold have much interfered with trade, collections and transportations during the week, especially at the west.

Business at Boston is especially active in dry goods, with jobbing trade ahead of previous years, print cloths sold up to April, and the largest business in woollens for many years. Shoe shops are well employed, and sole leather is higher. Large deliveries occur of rubber goods.

At Philadelphia, the dry goods trade exceeds last year, especially with the west and south. Wool is active and the market nearly bare with an advance of one to two cents during the past season. Coal is scarce, facilities being inadequate.

The southern and western trade at Baltimore is greater than last year in dry goods, millinery, notions and shoes.

Pittsburg iron is in poor demand, but the glass trade is fair.

Wholesale millinery trade at Cincinnati is healthy with bright prospects, but collections are generally slow.

Trade at Cleveland is good in groceries, hardware and dry goods, but collections are not good.

At Detroit sales are ahead of last year and collections fair.

Spring orders for dry goods are large at Chicago, but severe weather interferes with business and delays construction work. Money is in good demand, but the return of currency is slow.

Trade is very active at Milwaukee, but less strong than usual at St. Louis. At Kansas City trade is good in all lines, but collections somewhat slow.

At Omaha trade and collections are both good. Storms retard business and collections at Minneapolis and St. Paul, but the flour trade in the former city is active. Business at Denver is fair; at Louisville a full average with sales of leaf tobacco very large, and at Little Rock fair, with improving collections.

At other points in the south the trade is noticeably improving, especially in dry goods and groceries, and at New Orleans prospects are considered bright, though cotton and sugar quiet. Speculative markets have been quite irregular. Pork products show greater strength and have further advanced, supplies of hogs being very small. Coffee has been strong, advancing a quarter with moderate sales.

Wheat has risen one and one-quarter cents, with small transaction, western receipts being retarded by storms, but there is nothing to indicate that the unsold surplus at the end of the year will be small.

Cotton declined three-sixteenths on sales of 1,200,000 bales, for while no important change appears in receipts or in exports, the continued pressure of enormous unsold stocks here and abroad, is felt.

There never has been a more phenomenally satisfactory season for textile manufacturers of dry goods. Cottons are higher, and especially prints, though a cut is seen in ginghams, but most mills are sold for months ahead. Sales of wool at the three chief eastern markets have been $7,200,000 pounds against $0,700,000 pounds to date last year, an increase of 21 per cent, and the season for men's wear has been extraordinary in low and medium goods.

Higher sole leather has stimulated demand for boots and shoes.

The output of pig iron Feb. 1 was 171,451 tons against 173,008 tons last month, and unsold stocks are reduced 6,781 tons. Sales of 70,000 tons rails are noted, with one large order for Cuba, but plate and bar iron are weak. Consumption of copper is increasing and tin is steady.

Exports are improving a little but the outgo of $4,000,000 gold expected this week is due to trade balances. If the tentative action of strong banks does not check the movement further measures by the clearing house are contemplated for prevention of disturbance. The treasury has not been losing gold, and the soundest men feel that the treasury and the banks operating in harmony should be abundantly able to meet difficulties until the new administration makes known its policy.

The business failures during the last seven days number for the United States, 222; Canada, 44; total, 266, as compared with 801 last week, 295 the week previous to the last, and 276 for the corresponding week of last year.

CLARKSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 11.—The entire east side of the square which contained the finest business block in the city was entirely destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. The losses will aggregate $150,000 with partial insurance. Among the houses destroyed were those of J. T. McDonald, J. L. Reed, Mrs. Sarah Anderson, J. H. Barry, and the First National bank.

HAWAIIAN MATTERS.

Another Conference Held With Secretary Foster.

COMMISSIONERS SATISFIED.

The President Ready to Officially Recognize the Commissioners — A Cabinet Meeting Discusses the Situation—Nothing Will Be Done Until Queen Liliuokalani Can Be Officially Heard From.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Yesterday afternoon's developments in the Hawaiian matter, in contradistinction to those of the previous day, have been important. The commissioners from the island are hopeful if not confident that they will soon see the practical, if not formal, conclusion of their labors.

Yesterday afternoon, after office hours, Secretary Foster held a conference with the commissioners at the state department which lasted until 6 o'clock. In the course of the proceedings, the commissioners were informed that arrangements had been made for their reception by President Harrison to-day at noon. This announcement of course gave them great pleasure as it marked the determination of the administration to recognize them officially and to enter upon formal negotiations regarding the object of their mission.

It is not considered likely that any determination will be reached by this government until the representatives of the deposed queen shall have presented their side of the case. This, of course, can not be done before the latter part of next week.

It is regarded as probable, however, that along the line from San Francisco to Washington, Mr. Cook, one of the advisory council of the provisional government, or Mr. Neuman, who comes to represent the lately deposed queen, may have something to say that will throw additional light upon the situation of affairs in the islands.

With regard to the story to the effect that Liliuokalani is willing to abdicate and withdraw her claims upon the payment of indemnity by the United States, it may be said that while this government in the event of its assuming charge of the islands will doubtless provide for her and the young princess by annuity or otherwise, there will be no provision made for indemnifying her for any of the crown property of which she may be dispossessed by annexation.

The queen has had an allowance from the Hawaiian parliament of $10,000 or $50,000 a year, besides which she has derived an income of at least as much more from the crown estates. Whatever provision is made for her as compensation for the loss of her station and revenue, it will doubtless be on a much more modest basis.

CABINET MEETING.

The Hawaiian Question Discussed, but No Conclusion Arrived At.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—All the members of the cabinet were represented at the meeting yesterday, which lasted nearly an hour. The principal topic discussed was the action of Minister Stevens in establishing a protectorate over the Hawaiian islands.

In view of the fact that the next steamer leaving San Francisco for Honolulu is scheduled for Thursday, the 14th inst., it is not believed that any action will be taken approving or disapproving Minister Stevens' action until the day before the departure of the steamer for the island.

Secretary of State Foster was the first to leave the White House after the cabinet meeting. He intimated that the government had plenty of time to act in a deliberate manner, and while the approval or disapproval of Mr. Stevens' action was necessary, yet in view of the impossibility of reaching him other than by mail communication, immediate action in the premises was not deemed necessary.

A MOUNTAIN OF GOLD.

The Famous Mexican Legend Thought To Be a Settled Fact Now.

DURANGO, Mex., Feb. 11.—Hon. Juan Manuel Flores, governor of the state of Durango, has created the greatest excitement in mining circles in this state and throughout the northern part of the republic by announcing that he has discovered what he believes to be the famous mountain of gold, the legend of which is a household story in every part of Mexico. He states that whether or not the discovery is that of the lost mountain, yet it is one of the richest in Durango, as has been demonstrated by explorations of numerous veins of gold, all of which converge into the supposed mountain of gold. The governor has not divulged the location of his valuable find, but it is said to be in the first range of the Sierra Madre mountains, within eighty leagues of this city.

BUSINESS BUILDINGS BURNED.

A Missouri Town Almost Entirely Wiped Out by Fire.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—A special from Dexter, Mo., says the business portion of that place was destroyed early yesterday morning. The fire originated in the Dexter bank building from some unknown cause.

Among the business houses burned were: T. Dougherty's dry goods store; T. Ulen & Company, hardware; Garrison's, jewelry; Dowdy & Sons, dry goods; Dexter bank; Cummings' bakery; Mrs. Perkins' millinery store; C. O. Biggs, furniture; Miller Brothers, general merchandise; Doming's lumber yard; Sisto's drug store, and several small establishments. The wind was very high and the firemen were unable to cope with the flames.

TWO RIOTS.

Street Car Strike at Wheeling, West Virginia, Growing Serious.

WHEELING, Feb. 11.—The electric street car strike assumed its most serious phase yesterday when two riots occurred between the strikers and the men in charge of the barns in South Wheeling. The disturbances outdid anything of the sort ever occurring in this city or even in this portion of the state. Two men were seriously and one of them probably fatally hurt. William Newton, chief electrician of the company, and Henry Hartman are the injured men. William Tucker, the foreman of the barn, was also hurt to some extent.

The first fight occurred at 8 o'clock in the morning when Shop Foreman Tucker with George Hartman from Martins Ferry went to the outside of the barn for the purpose of pulling in one of the cars for repairs. Two strikers approached and with great vehemence threatened to do the two company men up. One of the strikers had a stone. After considerable squabbling, the two men escaped to the barn. They then went down to Benwood to secure warrants for the men who assaulted them. They were on their way back when they were chased by a crowd of outsiders, but among whom they saw strikers. The mob caught up with the two men. Mr. Tucker made motions to the effect that he had a revolver, and he was allowed to pass. Hartman was not so fortunate. The mob caught him and threw bricks at him until he fell to the ground insensible. They then turned him over on his stomach while some of them jumped up and down on his back.

The second fight occurred shortly afterwards at the barns. A company of outsiders, with a few strikers, were standing on the opposite side of the street from the barns. William Newton, the electrician, and a man named Wright were coming to the barns for work. One of the strikers approached him and he was backed up by the crowd. Wright and Newton pulled guns. In the meantime, some one got behind Newton and struck him an awful blow with a brick on the right side of the head. Newton dropped to the ground, his right eye crushed out, and the bones along the side of the face fearfully smashed. Several blows with bricks, fists and stones were rained on Newton's body. Finally the crowd was pulled off and Newton was taken into the barn.

The news of the trouble created great excitement in the city. The mayor has called on the state authorities, as the police seem to be unable to keep order.

The strike seems to be weakening, as a number of the strikers have applied for their old positions.

CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS.

Uninteresting Speeches Occupy the Entire Time of Both Houses.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—General discussion of an annual appropriation bill is usually a pro forma proceeding. It was supposed, however, that when the pension bill came up in the house yesterday there would be a break in the dull routine, but there was none. Mr. Mutchler, of Pennsylvania, who had charge of the bill, made a two-hour speech, which though bristling with statistics and delivered in his natural courteous manner, did not attract close attention. Mr. Groat, of Vermont, spoke with great earnestness against the proposed revision of the pension laws, but he also failed in securing the attention of the house. Mr. Tarsney, of Missouri, who is one of the great orators of the house, failed to do himself justice. He read his speech. Mr. McKinney, who is said to be on the slate for commissioner of pensions, was also powerless to secure a silent audience. Mr. O'Neill, of Massachusetts, was in no better situation. In fact, a bill which carries more than $160,000,000 was considered as though it carried no more than a few dollars.

The debate in the senate on the automatic car coupler bill was not of enlivening or even interesting character; and even Mr. Cullom, Republican, of Illinois, who is in charge of the bill, indicated the general weariness of the senate of the discussion by appealing to Mr. McPherson, Democrat, of New Jersey, who had offered to let the bill pass in its present shape on the assurance that it would be carefully considered in conference and made nearly unobjectionable as possible. The proposal was not accepted and the discussion went on. Finally the vote was about to be taken on the passage of the bill when Mr. Harris, Democrat, of Tennessee, proposed that the vote should be postponed until a new print of the bill, as amended, could be had. That was agreed to, and 4 o'clock this afternoon was fixed as the time to take the vote.

RAILROAD WRECK.

Two Men Killed and Another Probably Fatally Injured.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 11.—There was a wreck on the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad Thursday night, which resulted in the death of two men and probable fatal injury to another. At 11:30 o'clock Thursday night freight train No. 14 came stalled on the Manton Hill grade, near Gilbert's siding. Freight No. 10 following, coupled to No. 14 to help it over the grade, but a drawbar was broken and both trains were stopped to repair the break.

Brakeman Whiting and Conductor Harry Chamberlain were under the car making the necessary repairs when passenger train No. 2 dashed into the rear of the freight train, telescoping the caboose and one car. Brakeman Whiting was instantly killed, while Chamberlain was probably fatally injured. Henry Burleson, a traveling salesman, who boarded the caboose at Manton, was caught in the wreck.

DISASTER AT SEA.

Steamer Trinacri Wrecked on Cape Villano.

FORTY PEOPLE WERE DROWNED.

Only Seven Were Saved, and They Were Badly Injured—They Were a Number of Passengers on the Steamer, Mostly Women Members of the Mission of Gibraltar and Soldiers Belonging to the Garrison at That Place—All the Women on Board Were Drowned—Other Foreign News.

MADRID, Feb. 11.—A dispatch from Corunna states that the Anchor steamer Trinacria was wrecked Wednesday on Cape Villano, one of the northwestern points of the province of Galicia.

The Trinacria has been completely broken up. Her crew numbered thirty-seven all told. Seven were saved, but nearly all of them had sustained more or less serious injuries. There were a number of passengers on the steamer, mostly women members of the mission of Gibraltar and soldiers belonging to the garrison at that place. All the women on board were drowned.

The seven survivors jumped into the sea and were washed ashore. They landed almost naked, their clothing having been torn off in the terrible buffeting they received while trying to reach the shore.

The beach is strewn with bodies washed from the steamer. Large quantities of cargo are also coming ashore. A tremendously heavy sea is still running, which renders it impossible for small boats to approach the place where the Trinacria went down. A dense fog prevailed at the time of the accident. The fog was so heavy that the light on Cape Villano could not be seen. She was carried shoreward by a current with a strong easterly set, for which not enough, if any, calculation had been made, and thus she ran directly upon the cape.

The Trinacria was an iron, screw, barkrigged vessel of 2,250 gross tons burden, and 424 horse power.

The wreck of the Trinacria occurred at the exact spot where the British twin screw cruiser Serpent was lost on November 10, 1890, when of the 276 persons on board only three were saved. The court martial which investigated the loss of the cruiser Serpent decided that the disaster was due entirely to an error of judgment on the part of those responsible for her navigation.

In October last the steamer Roumania, belonging to the Anchor line, was lost on the Portuguese coast, a comparatively short distance south of where the Trinacria has been wrecked. The Roumania had 122 passengers on board, of whom only nine were saved.

Mammoth Insurance Company.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—Sixty leading French, Belgian and German insurance companies have formed a syndicate to insure European visitors to the Chicago world's fair against death or disability on the journey or during the sojourn in Chicago. The maximum period of this class of insurance is three months. The syndicate has a guarantee fund of 500,000,000 francs, $100,000,000, and will limit insurance on each steamship to the amount of 7,000,000 francs, $1,400,000.

Mob Burns a College.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 11.—The United States legation here has learned that a Moslem mob burned the American girls college in Marsovan because the director, Dr. Herrick, was believed to be the instigator of an offensive political agitation. The governor was either unable or unwilling to protect the college, for he made no effort to defend it against the mob.

Military Man Dead.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The death is announced at Paul of Major General Sir Thomas Durand Baker. General Baker served in the Crimea and the Indian mutiny, and also in the New Zealand war. He served in several military capacities, among other positions held by him being that of deputy adjutant general in Ireland.

Considerable of a Gun.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The British admiralty has definitely adopted a wire, quick fire, six-inch gun weighing seven tons, and which sends an elongated shot one hundred pounds weight for a distance of four miles so rapidly that there are two shots in the air at once. Forty of these guns are about ready for British war ships.

Sentences Too Severe.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—Public opinion is substantially unanimous to the effect that the ignominious judgment passed upon Comte Ferdinand De Lesseps went beyond the requirements of justice. All the newspapers considered the sentences very severe, and especially that of Ferdinand De Lesseps.

Minister Phelps Improved.

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—William Walter Phelps, United States minister to Germany, will return to Berlin next week from Algiers, where he has passed several weeks for the benefit of his health. The climate has greatly improved the condition of his throat.

Freight Train Wrecked by a Rock.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 10.—Thursday night's freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio ran into a rock that had been washed down by the rain near Toll Gate, and wrecked the engine, piling ten loaded cars on top of it. William Sports, of Grafton, engineer, was instantly killed, his fireman, Bruce Watkins, was badly injured, and a brakeman namedoley, was cut and bruised and may die.

Six or eight Ironton merchants were caught on the check racket one day this week by a couple of sharpers who are experts at the business. All the checks were passed within one hour by the sharpers making a small purchase in each case and pocketing the change. They got safely out of town. One of them was of medium size, smooth face, wearing dark clothes and soft brown hat. The other was larger, with black mustache, a mark or scar on his cheek, wearing a cutaway coat and blue flannel shirt. They realized about $100 out of their transactions. They are believed to have gone to West Virginia.

An official of the Christian Church was the authority for the statement in Wednesday's Ledger concerning the probable call of Rev. E. B. Cake to the pastorate of the church. The Ledger only stated that Rev. Cake would accept a unanimous call if tendered him. The reverend gentleman's home is at Nevada, Mo., though he has been preaching at Decatur, Ill. Editors who are frequently seen at church should know more about church affairs than editors "who are seldom seen at church," but it seems that they don't. We furnish the news. Now is the time to subscribe.—Public Ledger.

The Ledger's item was so worded that many people concluded that the call had already been extended. As far as Mr. Cake's residence is concerned, THE BULLETIN'S statement is correct. The editor has been in correspondence with Mr. Cake, and knows just what he is talking about. Mr. Cake had charge of a church at Nevada, Mo., some years ago. Since then he has served as pastor of the church at Decatur, Ill., and his residence is still in Decatur.

The stockholders of the Mitchel and O'Hare Hardware Company, at a meeting yesterday, elected the following officers: E. W. Mitchel, President; M. A. O'Hare, Treasurer and Manager. Mr. Mitchel has been identified with the hardware business for the past seventeen years and is well and favorably known. Mr. O'Hare has spent fourteen years in the business and is thoroughly conversant with all branches of the trade. He is a shrewd business man and the new company can't help but flourish under his careful and prudent management. Mr. George H. Owens, who is undoubtedly one of the best hardware men in the State, is still connected with the house and he and the company will be pleased to see their many friends at the old stand, opposite Oddfellows' Hall. We bespeak for the new firm a liberal share of public patronage.

A Remarkable Source of Revenue.
 Says the Chicago News Record: "A recent financial statement of the affairs of the Masonic Temple discloses that the receipts from persons visiting the observatory at the top of the building are $150 a day. This amounts to nearly 5 1/2 per cent. on an investment of $1,000,000. But this statement goes further and predicts that during the World's Fair the revenue from this source will amount to $650 a day. This would be at the rate of $237,250 a year, or more than 5 per cent on $4,000,000."

Pork Packing.
 The marketing of hogs the past week has been very light, indicating a total of but 190,000 handled by Western packers which compares with 275,000 the preceding week and 315,000 last year, making a total of 4,140,000 since November 1, against 6,985,000 a year ago, a decrease of 125,000 for the week and 2,845,000 for the season, compared with last year. The quality of hogs is unusually variable with a large proportion of light weight and young stock. Prices are further advanced, reaching as high as $8.65 at Chicago, where there is a premium being paid over other markets to secure supplies from the small offerings now available. While the receipts at Chicago continue small the shipments from that point have been well maintained, leaving a limited number for local killing.—Cincinnati Price Current, February 9.

THE JUDGE WEAKENED.

A Woman's Demand For Her Pistol Granted in Open Court.

Hon. Francis Hord, formerly of Maysville, was elected Judge of the Circuit Court in the Brown County district, Indiana, last fall, and recently entered upon his duties.

A special from Columbus, that State, says his first experience on the bench was amusing and dramatic. Sarah Jane Booher, the female who had shot at three men, and who had been in jail since the last term of court, was brought before Judge Hord Thursday to receive her discharge.

Together with her freedom Judge Hord tendered the woman some friendly advice about carrying a pistol, saying it was wicked, dangerous and unlawful. When he had concluded his admonition, Mrs. Booher demanded the return of her weapon from the officer. The Judge refused the request, and told her it was not the sort of a plaything a woman should have. She grew furious at the refusal, and said she was determined to have her pistol. She would carry it next to her heart as long as she lived, and when she died she wanted it laid upon her breast with every chamber loaded and her finger on the trigger. Then stamping her foot on the floor, and directing a menacing glance at the Judge, she said in defiant tones that she would not leave the court room until the gun was placed in her hands.

Judge Hord saw that expostulation would be of no avail, says the special, and commanded the Sheriff to return the pistol to the enraged woman, charging him to see that it contained no bullets. As soon as the weapon was in her possession she flounced out of the court room and went to a neighboring store where she procured a box of cartridges. When Mrs. Booher left for home every chamber was loaded with a deadly missile, and she triumphantly marched away with the gun secreted in the bosom of her dress.

NO MORE "ABERDEEN MARRIAGES."

Bill to Put a Stop to Them Passed by the Ohio Legislature and Becomes a Law.

Aberdeen will no more be known as the Gretna Green of this section.

Eloping lovers will no longer find an accommodating 'Squire at that point ready to tie the nuptial knot for them without any requirements of the law having been complied with.

The act to put a stop to these marriages has heretofore been mentioned. It is now a law, having passed both branches of the Ohio Legislature.

It provides that the solemnization of marriage without previous announcement of banns or presentation of license shall be an offense punishable by six months' imprisonment in addition to a fine not in excess of $1,000.

The business has already been practically broken up, but this puts a stop to it forever.

THE whisky in Boyle County must be out of the ordinary, judging from the sights a couple of young men saw during a sleighride the other night near Kirksville.—Maysville Ledger.

Judging from the manner in which the above item dislocates the topography of this section, the Mason County article must be "some snakes" itself.—Danville Advocate.

The young lady who accompanied the songs at the opera house last evening is a member of the Visitation Mandolin Club and plays on the guitar with the greatest ease. The club is daily increasing in number and giving much satisfaction to the Sisters. Miss Mae Burgess, who played at a matinee musicale recently, is a member of the club and a pupil of the academy. The Mandolin Club will furnish the music at the coming Valentine tea.

Governor Brown Says the Penitentiary Lessees Owe the State $94,000.

Sensational Developments in the Matter—Sinking Fund Commissioners Wide Apart.

A Frankfort special to the Covington Post says: "Governor Brown and Secretary of State Headley submitted to the General Assembly Friday morning their reply to the report made by the Mason & Ford Company, lessees of the two State prisons. The reply is sensational in its character.

"They state an attempt was made to build a railroad by the company out of the appropriation for the Eddyville penitentiary, and the correspondence between Governor Buckner, Attorney General Hardin and others upon the subject is given.

"The report states that the company failed to get the money for the railroad, and that then there was an attempt made to get the Legislature to make a special appropriation for that purpose. The amount of the appropriation the company sought to secure for the railroad was $128,000. The Legislature refused to make the appropriation.

It is stated in the report that the Auditor last April entered on his ledger what purported to be a settlement of the Frankfort penitentiary account without consulting the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners, which, if valid, would cause a loss to the State's interest of over $13,000. He also allowed a claim of $2,000, which the Board had not considered.

"The report concludes by saying that the first contract with the lessees in 1882, and all subsequent contracts contained no provisions for the protection of the rights of the State in case of delinquency, nor for the protection or preservation of its property, and yet, in the face of continuous delinquency on every contract on the part of the Mason & Ford Company, the contracts were renewed on unchanged conditions.

"From the reading of the report the inference would be that there had been collusion between State officials and prison contractors."

The Sinking Fund Commissioners are wide apart in the matter, Governor Brown and Secretary of State Headley holding one view, and Auditor Norman, Treasurer Hale and Attorney General Hendrick another view. Each faction presented a report to the Legislature. The Frankfort correspondent of the Covington Commonwealth says: "The minority report of Governor Brown and Secretary Headley covers thirty-eight pages of type-written matter, and it throws the controversy between the State and lessees wide apart.

"The majority report signed by Treasurer Hale, Auditor Norman and Attorney General Hendricks fixes the indebtedness at $94,000.

The Governor and Secretary allege an error in the book-keeping of the lessees of over $100,000, and claim that the amount due the State from the lessees is $94,000.

"The lessees claim that the State really owes them, and thus it will at once be seen that the controversy is a pretty broad one."

The resolution calling on the Mason-Ford Company for a list of their stockholders came up in the House again yesterday. While it was being debated, the company sent in the list. It consists of twenty-four names of persons living in different parts of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, and the total number of shares is 1500.

The list of stockholders submitted does not include the name of any State official. Several ladies are stockholders.

"LITTLE WOMEN,"

Greeted by a Crowded House Last Evening—A Very Enjoyable Entertainment.

The "standing-room-only" sign was out at the opera house last night.

The attraction was "Little Women," so much advertised of late, rendered under the auspices of the "Willing Workers" of the Central Presbyterian Church.

The entertainment was looked to with much anticipation, and a crowded house greeted the young people. As a rule amateur performances are tiresome and long. We are glad to note how great an exception was the drama of "Little Women," a beautiful story from Miss Alcott, pure, wholesome and sweet. As dramatized by Miss Lettie Wood it retains all its delicate points, preserves all its beauties and as a play appeals strongly to an audience. Miss Wood is to be congratulated upon her work.

In detail, it would be unfair to not mention each pretty miss and handsome youth did we not comment in words of highest praise of each. The play was perfectly cast. Miss Lolla Thomas and Mr. John Chapin acted like professionals, carrying their part with ease and grace. "Aunt March," in the hands of Miss Georgie Dobyns, was magnificent. Sweet voiced, thoroughly in touch with her character, she gave the part its proper interpretation—perfectly done. Mr. Will Wood, as "The Professor," was loudly applauded, metamorphosing his genial self into a real, live old tutor. Miss Marian Wormald, dignified and graceful, lent additional charm by her excellent conception of "Meg." Mr. Brooke, as handled by Mr. Willie C. Curran, was most capably done. Though having few lines to recite he did them in a manner most "devoted," and most acceptable. Mr. Walter Wormald acted the old man well; his make-up was splendid and he deserves credit. "Mrs. March," kind, sympathetic, motherly, as represented by Miss Lettie Wood, could not have been improved upon. This character was to have been given by Miss Mae Cox, but sickness prevented her taking the part. Misses Hattie Dobyns and Sallie Ball were sweet and natural in their parts. Miss Tola Orr and Miss Mary Noyes sustained their characters in a manner becoming older and more experienced persons. Miss Alice Dobyns gave the epilogue as a graceful elocutionist would have done—happy, pleasing and well. Mr. Thomas P. Wood, Mr. Gordon Sulser and Master Joseph T. Wood well sustained their parts. Mr. Harry Sulser entertained the audience with selections on the piano between acts.

The vocal quartette and trio were enjoyable features of the entertainment. "Pro Phondo Basso" was splendidly sung by Miss Alice Wheeler, Miss Fannie Branel, Dr. P. G. Smoot and Professor Rowland. It was so enthusiastically applauded that the quartette very kindly repeated it. Mr. Frank Ellis, Dr. P. G. Smoot and Professor Rowland rendered a beautiful trio, "Bury Me Near The Old Home." Their voices blended most harmoniously and the selection met with hearty favor. It is hardly necessary to speak of the sum realized; the crowded house tells best its proportions. The Central Presbyterian Church is to be congratulated, and the public return thanks to the young performers for a pleasant evening.

The "Willing Workers" and others who took part desire to return thanks to the managers of the opera house for many courtesies and favors, and to the public for the very liberal patronage.

You will be pleased with our new system.

INSANE 'ASYLUM' HORROR.

Not All the Dead Bodies Have Yet Been Removed from the Ruins.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 11.—In the chapel at the county farm building on the Settees, which have heretofore held devout worshippers, lie what can be found of thirty-four fearfully burned and charred bodies. The others who were known to have perished in the flames of the insane asylum fire Thursday night have not been found, for the cellar is full of water and the debris has not yet been removed.

Coroner J. H. Dasher, of Rochester, called together a jury yesterday and after being sworn, they visited the cellar of the destroyed building where they could see many bodies lying. Undertaker Ward was then ordered to remove them to the chapel. The bodies taken out were horribly burned and a large number entirely unrecognizable.

The State Investigating.

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 11.—The house yesterday afternoon adopted resolutions authorizing the state board of health to investigate the causes of Thursday night's disaster at the Stratford county farm, with instructions to report as early as possible.

CLEVELAND'S CABINET.

Five Places Already Filled According to the Latest Report.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The appointment of Judge Gresham makes the fifth cabinet place filled. Mr. Carlisle is the authority for the statement that Hoke Smith, of Georgia, will go into the cabinet, and that Mr. Cleveland has formally tendered him the place. The position now named for him is that of secretary of the interior.

The places filled are: Walter Q. Gresham, state; John G. Carlisle, treasury; Daniel Damont, war; W. S. Bissell, attorney general or postoffice. The uncertainty in regard to the latter portfolio is that Mr. Cleveland still inclines to giving his law portfolio to the south and is thinking of William L. Wilson, of West Virginia, for attorney general.

When the complete cabinet is made there may be some shifting of places, but not of men. The five first men are slated and have accepted.

FEARING A FLOOD.

Second Johnstown Horror Likely to Occur Along a Pennsylvania River.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Feb. 11.—The residents of the lowlands along the west branch valley between Curwensville and Clearfield are threatened with a second Johnstown horror. At the former place is located the largest sawmill of the Curwensville Lumber company. In order to hold the logs that are cut during the season a large boom is located at the mill and extends two miles up the river. At present there are over five million feet of logs in this boom, and on top of these logs is gorged at least fifteen feet of ice.

The ice gorge extends a distance of six miles, and the water is overflowing the banks all along the river for a distance of ten miles, and is above the ten foot flood mark. As all the ice from Curwensville on down has left the course, if a break occurs the whole gorge may come upon this place at any minute. If the Curwensville dam breaks nothing can prevent great loss of property, both public and private.

Flood Damages.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Feb. 11.—The ice in the Wabash valley has gorged at Pittsburg, a small village eighteen miles down the river, and the water has backed up as far as Logansport, causing a disastrous flood in the intervening distance. The big wooden covered bridge at Georgetown has been swept away. It was built in 1893 at a cost of $35,000. The splendid iron structure at Lockport, recently erected at a cost of $40,000, has been badly damaged. One span is gone and the rest is tottering. Another fine bridge at Carrollton is reported in bad condition. The inhabitants of Lockport, in the valley, were driven from their homes by the flood, and have found shelter on higher ground.

Bad Indians Captured.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The secretary of the interior has received a telegram from Inspector Cisney, at Pine Ridge, stating that Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses, with his people, had captured two of the murderers of the cowboys and had turned them over to Captain Brown, the agent, who will deliver them to the United States marshal. These, with the two who were killed, and Two Strikes, who was wounded, are all who participated in the murder.

Bridge Damaged by Ice.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Feb. 11.—Yesterday the ice in the Millstone river came down into the Raritan with a great crash. The ice struck the new Albany bridge, tore away the woodwork beneath it, knocking the drawbridge off its pivot and stood it up on end. Many persons who were on the bridge at the time narrowly escaped being thrown into the mass of ice. The river has risen six feet and is still rising rapidly.

Safe For Seven Years.

PERU, Ind., Feb. 11.—Fred Snyder yesterday was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment for attempting to kill his wife. Snyder has repeatedly figured in court for similar offenses, only to be released at the intercession of the injured woman. Three months ago he threw a child, three months old, across the room at his mother, breaking the arm of the infant.

Ten Men Injured.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 11.—An empty engine coming down the mountain from Fairview, on the Lehigh Valley railroad yesterday afternoon, demolished the caboose of a gravel train injuring ten workmen. Michael O'Malley died from his injuries and Isaac Douds is believed to be fatally hurt.

The McDonald Will Case.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Feb. 11.—All that remains now of the hearing of the McDonald will case are the arguments. These will begin Monday. The general impression is that the contestants have made a very strong case.

Negroes Hanged by a Mob.

MAGNOLIA, Miss., Feb. 11.—Two negro boys, Frank Harrell and Cornelius Felsner, who confessed to having robbed and burned Lee Robinson's store at Dickey, Avate county, on Sunday night, were hanged by a mob of angry citizens Thursday night a few hundred yards from where the crime was committed. The confession of the boys implicated five other negroes, who were promptly arrested and would have been hanged also if they had not been rescued by a sheriff's posse and carried to the jail at Liberty.

Restocking the Country with Game.

ANDERSON, Ind., Feb. 11.—The severity of the winter has practically killed off the quail in this county, for the birds that were not frozen have been starved to death. A movement to stock the county with new game is now on foot.

Death in a Snow Slide.

BRECKENRIDGE, Colo., Feb. 11.—Yesterday two Union Pacific trainmen lost their lives and four others were injured by a snow slide near this place. The dead are Engineer Lynch and Fireman Smith.

Prisoner Goes Crazy.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 10.—Isaac Reynolds, a third term horse thief serving a sentence from Fayette county, became insane yesterday and was sent to the prison asylum. He believes ex-Warden Dyer's daughter is after him with electricity and has power to change him into a toad.

A Miner's Misfortune.

ZANESVILLE, O., Feb. 11.—Joe Miles was working in the air shaft at the Mill Run coal mine yesterday when the roof caved in. He was rescued a few minutes after the accident, but both legs and both arms were broken. The chances of recovery are slight.

Indications.

Generally fair weather but with light local snows on the lakes; northwesterly winds; slightly colder.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.
